

2026 Notification for the 2nd term (specialized subjects) teaching method, class registration, and grade confirmation for the 1st term, 2026.

To students of the Faculty of Education

※For the General Education Subjects, please refer URL address below;

(https://www2.he.tohoku.ac.jp/zengaku/zengaku_jyugyou_risyuu_seiseki.html)

1. How to conduct the 2nd term

Classes for the specialized subjects and the general education subjects start on October 1st (Thu.).

Information about the courses will be posted on the homepage, Googleclassroom or Syllabus. The course instructor will guide you how to take classes.

- ✓ Please take precautions to prevent infectious diseases on campus.
- ✓ Please refer URL address below for online classes.

<https://sites.google.com/view/teleclass-tohoku/>

2. Class registration period for specialized subjects

From October 1st (Thu) to October 14th (Wed), (strict deadline)

- ✓ Please register for courses on the Student Affairs Information System from any computer connected to the Internet, whether on or off campus.
- ✓ When access to the Student Affairs Information System, your student ID and password are required. To reissue, please come to the Educational Affairs Section with your student ID card. The Academic Affairs Information System was replaced by a new system in September 2024.

[Manual of the Student Affairs Information System (brief version)]

<https://rp.auth.tohoku.ac.jp/gkms/manual/index.html>

- ✓ Register your courses by October 14 (Wed), confirm that there are no errors, and click the “Submit” button to complete your registration. If you are still in the course registration period, you can change courses even after registration.

- ✓ The maximum enrollment limit for media courses is 60 credits. Please be sure not to exceed 60 credits before graduation by checking the “Total Credits Earned in Media Courses” in the “Student Information Inquiry” section of the Academic Affairs Information System.
- ✓ Students who enroll in or before the academic year 2021 will receive credits for “Lectures on Sociology of Education 1” if they take “Lectures on Sociology of Education”. However, if they have already earned credits for “Lectures on Sociology of Education 1”, they will earn credits for “Lectures on Sociology of Education 2”.
- ✓ When registering for courses offered by other faculties, please check the course requirements in advance via the syllabus, etc., and obtain permission to take the course from the instructor before registering.
- ✓ For details on course registration for courses that do not appear on the Web Course Registration screen, course modification requests, and course cancellation requests, please refer to “2026 second Semester Class Registration and Confirmation of Registered Classes(Important Notes)” (attached). All applications must be made within the designated period.
- ✓ Course registration via the web will not be available after October 15. If you want to correct your registration for specialized courses, please submit a “Course Registration Correction Request” by 5:00 p.m. on October 21 (Wed) via Google Form (see attached). Please note that there is no correction period for General Education Subjects.

- ✓ Students who want to cancel a course must submit a request via Google Form (see attached) between October 22 (Thu) and November 30 (Mon) by 5:00 p.m.

(Caution!) If you fail to submit this notification and are not allowed to earn credits for reasons such as not attending classes, the grade will be "D" (Course Abandonment).

- ✓ Please make sure to add the classes to Classroom by yourself.
