* Notes on submission:

*The Committee does not review the academic content of your dissertation. It mainly checks that the dissertation and required documents meet the formal and administrative requirements. Since only part of the dissertation is reviewed, please check the entire dissertation and make similar corrections where necessary.

*Please seek guidance from your supervisor on academic and specialized matters.

*If binding or other procedures are expected to take time, you may submit your dissertation directly to the Academic Affairs Section without review by the Committee, under the guidance of your supervisor.

*The inspection process takes approximately 3 weeks after submission.

*You can submit your application by mail with a delivery record, such as registered mail.

Please write your student ID number and name clearly on the front of the envelope.
